

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE DISTRICT OF MASSACHUSETTS

JAN 29 P 3:36

RECEIVED
U.S. DISTRICT COURT
DISTRICT OF MASSACHUSETTS

JACK ROGERS and
PAUL PINELLA,

Plaintiffs

v.

COMCAST CORPORATION
and AT&T BROADBAND,

Defendants

C.A. No. 04-cv-10142-EFH

CONSENTED-TO MOTION FOR ADDITIONAL TIME WITHIN WHICH TO RESPOND TO THE COMPLAINT

With Plaintiffs' consent, Comcast Corporation and its affiliates ("Comcast"), through its undersigned counsel, hereby respectfully request an extension of time of sixty (60) days, to and including March 12, 2004, within which to file a responsive pleading or motion to Plaintiffs' Complaint. The reasons for the motion are set forth below:

1. Comcast's answer or other response was due on or before January 12, 2004. Comcast has previously sought an extension of ten days, to and including January 22, 2004, to respond to the Complaint. Plaintiffs' counsel have now assented to an extension of sixty (60) days, to and including March 12, 2004.

2. The Complaint alleges facts almost identical to those alleged in at least four other actions initiated in Pennsylvania, Illinois, and Massachusetts. This motion would permit the parties to have uniform response times and permit Comcast adequate opportunity to investigate these allegations and prepare an appropriate response.

3. Comcast respectfully reserves its rights to assert all defenses and objections available to it.

4. Therefore, undersigned counsel respectfully requests that the Court order that the time for filing an answer or other response to the Complaint be extended by sixty (60) days, to and including March 12, 2004.

Respectfully Submitted,

DATED: January 30, 2004
(mab)
